1. General instructions

Section 422(a)(i) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 provides that the Registrar may, on the application of any person, rectify a Register maintained by it under this Law if the Registrar is satisfied that any information has been wrongly entered in, or omitted from, the Register.

Section 422(b) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 then states:

“(b) Before the Registrar rectifies a Register under sub-section (a)(i), the Registrar must:

- (i) give written notice to the company that an application has been made to rectify the Register in relation to that company (including details of that application);
- (ii) where the application has been made in relation to the registration of mortgages or charges, give written notice to the mortgagee or chargee that an application has been made to rectify the Register in relation to that company (including details of that application); and
- (iii) give public notice setting out:
 - (A) the name of the applicant;
 - (B) the name of the company;
 - (C) the reasons for and details of the changes sought to be made to the register; and
 - (D) the date by which a written objection to the proposed rectification must be delivered to the Registrar, being a date not less than 28 days after the date of the notice.”
