

FORM I-9A | Notice of intent to suspend for failure to file annual return

Section 430(d), Myanmar Companies Law 2017

For office use only

Name of company

Registration number

1. General statement

With regard to the submission of a failure to file an annual return to the Registrar, Section 430(d) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017 provides that:

“If a company makes default in filing an annual return required under section 97, or where the Registrar reasonably believes that any document submitted to it is fraudulent or contains a false declaration or information which could cause material damage to the interests of the company, its creditors or the public, the Registrar may give notice to the company that it intends to suspend the company’s registration, and such suspension will take effect within 28 days unless the company makes good the default, including by the payment of any outstanding fees and prescribed penalties.”

2. Notice of intention to suspend company registration

Pursuant to section 430(d) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017, the Registrar hereby gives notice that the company’s registration will be automatically suspended 28 days from the date of this notice, unless the company files its overdue annual return and pay all outstanding fees and applicable penalties.
